

USA DANCE Pre-Teen Competitors Are Television Stars!

Maury Povich, host of the popular television show The Maury Show, is searching for America's "Most Talented Kids" and has already selected two of USA Dance's talented pre-teen couples to be on the show and compete against other kid dancers, singers and musicians.

The first program on Nov. 15 featured USA Dance's 2007 Pre-Teen II Silver Latin Champions Jaryd Farcon (age 9) and Cara Abaya-Campos (age 7) from New Jersey, who are currently on the Show's online video and now leading the public vote by a landslide.

On Dec. 20, the Maury Show will showcase pre-teen latin champions and USA Dance members Ted Grinvald (age 12) and Natasha Shevchenko (age 10) from California. The public will also vote on their performance to pick their favorites.

It's been an incredible experience for our dancers and their families. We are so pleased to have such talent and enthusiasm part of our membership.

Please go online to vote for our two couples -- voting ends soon for Jaryd and Cara! <http://talentshow.mauryshow.com/kidtalent/index.php> .

###